C. ONDERDONK.

F. C. Fisher, having purchased the celebrated Ennett Stump Extractor, is now prepared to undertake contracts for clearing large or small tracts of land at bottom prices. F. C. Fisher guarantees thorough work, and will be glad to give immediate attention to all parties who may desire further information.

MARRIAGE.

GILES-KNIGHT—At the Methodist Episcopal Parsonage, Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 20, by the Rev. Joe. Kendal, J. W. Giles, Rugby, Tenn., was united in marriage to Annie L. Knight, of Thomaston, Ga.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Mr. Alexander has returned to Rugby from Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Fowler, of Alpine Lodge, Rugby, have gone to Detroit to spend the winter with their friends.

A party of six hunters and half-a-dozen dogs passed through Rugby last Wednesday on their way to the wilderness.

Mr. Southwick has opened his boarding house in Pioneer Cottage opposite Lunley and Mallory's store; we wish him every success.

Messrs E. M. Berry and John Voiles are very successful trappers. They are thinning the district of foxes, opossums, coons and such like "vermin".

Mr. and Mrs. Galliat and family have reached Rugby, and are residing in the Garden House which they have rented from C. Price Dixon. We hope they have come to stay.

Mr. E. M. Berry will, in future, be responsible for the mechanical arrangements, typography, and changes in the RUGBY GAZETTE. Look out every week for a good paper.

Mr. Wm. Baldwin, General Feed Merchant, has a carload of corn and another of mixed feed on the way here. Mr. B. is determined to make the feed business a success.

Mrs. Stebbins, daughter of Mr. Daniel Lyons of Double Knobs returned home on Monday last after having spent a very pleasant week in Rugby with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker.

Mr. Ed. H. Fox, Photographic Artist of Danville has been taking views in Rugby, and district for the purpose of exhibition at the "Worlds Fair" New Orleans. These views with others will be seen as transparencies on the windows of the exhibition.

Mr. C. H. Wilson is busily engaged on the survey of a large tract of land belonging to Hy. Kimber, Esq., and lying in the vicinity of Hull and Brewster farms, and Mrs. Davison's farm, and South and East of Treforest. Mr. Wilson has the "Girding Reservation" tract, near Sunbright, well in hand, as well as other surveys of local tracts.

Mr. Thos. Hales, from Anderson Co., moved up into Fentress some time ago, and has finally taken up his abode with his father, and will become a permanent citizen, and we hope a prosperous one.

Mr. John Range is a live young farmer, ambitious and progressive; he has just added to the wealth of his county and to his personal convenience by building a capital stone chimney to his house. May it never smoke.

The denomination of christians known as "Separate Baptists" are holding a series of meetings at New Liberty Church, Fentress Co., that will terminate on Sunday evening Nov. 30.

Messrs. Geo. Rogers and C. S. Moore have taken up the Land Agency formerly conducted by Mr. Skene. These gentlemen have several properties on sale and will be happy to communicate with parties who may desire to invest in property in Rugby or elsewhere in this vicinity.

Miss Wells, the energetic teacher of our public school recently visited Warburg to obtain the State License required by the law to enable the school to obtain the State capitation fee. Miss Wells passed a successful examination.

We hear through our old friend Mr. Miles Jones of Orchard Grove, Fentress County, that the farmers in his neighborhood are taking measures to improve the grade of their stock. This is progress in the right direction, and will soon add to the wealth of the farm.

Hunters who have been ranging the woods report game abundant; the prospect for a winter supply of wild turkeys and deer is excellent. Venison chops fried in honey is said to be an excellent dish; the prospect is cheery.

Miles Jones of Orchard Grove has invested in a pair of young scrub bulls, thoroughbreds, and which he is effectually breaking in. He will be glad to sell these animals to any who may be inclined to work them as steers, or eat them as beef.

Mr. C. W. Jefferson has gone to New Orleans for a few days. Mr. C. S. Moore is manager pro tem of the Newbury House. If Mr. Jefferson accomplishes the object of his visit to the city, he may probably remain during the time the Exhibition remains open.

In reply to our correspondent from Ohio, we find the following prices to rule in Rugby and neighborhood: Butter 25 to 40 cents; Eggs per dozen 15 to 20 cents; Irish Potatoes per bushel 55 cents; Sweet Potatoes 55 cents; Apples per bushel $1.

The weather during the past week has been, and continues remarkably fine; mornings crisp and frosty—the day clear, bright, balmy. Capital weather for the agriculturist, fall plowing continues all round, and many are engaged in planting apples, peach and pear orchards.

Mr. A. L. Ross of Deer Lodge, Laven-der, Morgan Co., is pushing on agricultural labor with great vigor. Mr. Ross owns a charming location and is putting capital into the undertaking, which under his energetic management will, it is hoped, realize a handsome return. Mr. Ross contemplates raising deer, mules and cattle.

Mr. F. T. Nelson from Indianapolis has been appointed Station Master at Rugby Road, vice Mr. Burnet, who has been transferred. Mr. Nelson has had considerable experience in railroad work, and will no doubt look after the interests of the Company, and the convenience of the public, in the most efficient way. We hope he comes to stay.

A gentleman from Berlin, Ontario, writes us:—"I like Rugby, and am well pleased with your clean little newspaper." So are we; it is our aim to produce a sheet that shall not require censorship before it can be laid on the table of any family within the limit of our circulation. We trust the time is not far distant when the public taste will demand a sheet that shall not contaminate those who touch it. Our correspondent "likes Rugby;" we are glad he is so well educated and possesses such correct taste; if he should come here to locate permanently he will not find that "distance lends enchantment to the view"

SUNBRIGHT, Nov. 20th, '84.
The Editor RUGBY GAZETTE:

We think the article in your last paper dated Nov. 15 upon the climate and healthfulness of Walden's Ridge, quite as true of this locality as well as in most other particulars, and will be of great interest to many whose attention is already favorably directed to this region. We believe it would be to your profit to mark the article and send the paper to the gentlemen whose names appear in the list which I enclose. If you cannot do this, send us the papers with your bill, and we will re-mail them to the parties we have named. They are all looking to this part of the south, and may visit here this Fall.

Most respectfully,
W. E. KNIGHT.

We quite agree with the remarks made by Mr. Knight in the above letter, and have taken the liberty of publishing them in our columns. Nothing more valuable, or more calculated to promote inquiry has occupied the pages of the RUGBY GAZETTE, and we are extremely pleased to find our opinion so ably endorsed. It is extremely gratifying to know from our correspondence that the RUGBY GAZETTE is extending its influence and is inducing considerable inquiry. We write not only for Rugby, but for the district and every settler that locates in Rugby, Sunbright, Wartburg, Allardt, or elsewhere in our vicinity is so much help to the general gain. We shall be pleased to hear from each of these localities, as well as from Robbins and Hellenwood, in fact from all important points in our district. Through the courtesy of the proprietors of the Rugby Handbook, we shall be able to mail to each of these gentlemen referred to a copy of that pamphlet with the issue of Nov. 15.

Active military preparations are going on in Japan owing to China's difficulties with France.

Small-pox is virulent among Egyptians and Europeans at Dongola, and has seriously impeded Wolsey's progress.

North Chicago Rolling Mill Company shut down its mill at South Chicago on Wednesday Nov. 26 throwing between 1,500 and 1,800 men out of work.

The Congregational Church Evanston, Ill., was burned to the ground on Wed. last, loss about $20,000, insured to 18,000.

Selden's lumber yard and sheds in Rome, Utica, was burned by an incendiary on Thursday last, loss about 50,000, partly insured.

It is reported at Dongola, that Gen. Gordon has taken a Krupp gun from the rebels, and that 500 of El Mahdi's followers have joined his forces.

Popular indignation is high in England over the action of the Judge in the Adams Coleridge case. It has been severely criticised in the House of Commons.

Having had several years experience in the surveying of conflicting Land Claims, in re-tracing old lines, and being perfectly familiar with the mode of surveying peculiar to this mountain region, where litigation is so frequent.

I am prepared to make surveys of the surrounding country, also of town lots in Rugby and furnish plans and estimates for improvements at reasonable rates.

The patronage of the legal profession is respectfully solicited.
